

AMENDED IN SENATE MAY 17, 2011

AMENDED IN SENATE MARCH 24, 2011

SENATE BILL

No. 890

Introduced by Senator Leno

February 18, 2011

An act to add Title 1.6C.5 (commencing with Section 1788.50) to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 700.010, 706.103, 706.104, 706.108, and 706.122 of, and to add Sections 581.5 to, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to debt buyers.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 890, as amended, Leno. Debt buyers.

(1) Existing state and federal law regulate the practice of debt collection. Existing state law prohibits a debt collector from engaging in specified conduct, including the use of threats or causing a telephone to ring repeatedly to annoy the person called. Existing law prohibits a debt collector from obtaining an affirmation from a debtor of a consumer debt that has been discharged in bankruptcy, without clearly and conspicuously disclosing to the debtor, in writing, the fact that the debtor is not legally obligated to make such affirmation.

This bill would enact the Fair Debt Buyers Practices Act, which would regulate the activities of a person who has bought consumer debt and the circumstances in which the person may bring suit. The bill would prohibit a debt buyer, as defined, from making any written statement in an attempt to collect a consumer debt, including bringing suit, unless the debt buyer has valid documentation that the debt buyer is the sole owner of the specific debt at issue and reasonable verification of the amount of the debt allegedly owed. The bill would require the debt buyer to make this documentation available to the debtor, without charge, upon receipt of a request, within 5 days. The bill would require a debt buyer who receives a payment on a debt to provide an original receipt containing specified information. The bill would prohibit a debt buyer from initiating a suit to collect a debt if the statute of limitations on the cause of action has expired. The bill would prescribe penalties for a violation of the act and would provide that its provisions may not be waived. The bill would prohibit an entry of judgment in favor of a plaintiff debt buyer unless properly authenticated business records relating to the debt and ownership of it, among other things, are properly in evidence, and would require a court to enter a judgment against the plaintiff debt buyer if this information is not provided or if he or she fails to appear or is not prepared on the date scheduled for trial.

(2) Existing law establishes a process for the enforcement of money judgments and requires a levying officer to provide certain documents and information to a judgment debtor and to a designated employer in connection with wage garnishment. Existing law permits a process server also to serve an earnings withholding order on an employer and requires that the process server also serve certain documents at this time. Existing law requires an employer who is served with an earnings withholding order to provide certain documents to an employee who is a judgment debtor.

This bill would require, in the circumstances described above, that a copy of the form that the judgment debtor may use to make a claim of exemption and a copy of the form used to provide a financial statement also be provided.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Title 1.6C.5 (commencing with Section 1788.50)
2 is added to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:
3
4 TITLE 1.6C.5. FAIR DEBT BUYERS PRACTICES ACT
5
6 1788.50. (a) As used in this title, “debt buyer” means a person
7 who, in the ordinary course of business, regularly engages in 8 purchasing delinquent, charged-off consumer loans, or consumer
9 credit accounts, or other delinquent consumer debt. “Debt buyer”
10 includes a person acting on behalf of a debt buyer.

1 (b) Terms defined in Title 1.6C (commencing with Section
2 1788) shall apply to this title.

3 1788.51. The requirements and remedies of this title are 4 cumulative to those in Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788)
5 as well as any other law.

6 1788.52. A debt buyer shall not make any written statement
7 in an attempt to collect a consumer debt, including bringing suit
8 or initiating another type of proceeding, unless the debt buyer has 9 in his or her possession valid documentation that the debt buyer
10 is the sole owner of the specific debt or account at issue and 11 reasonable verification of the amount of the debt allegedly owed
12 by the debtor. Reasonable verification shall include documentation 13 of the name of the original creditor, the name and address of the 14 debtor as it appeared on the original creditor's records, the original 15 creditor's account number associated with the debt, a copy of the 16 contract or other document evidencing the debtor's agreement to 17 the debt, and an itemized accounting of the amount claimed to be 18 owed, including all fees and charges. Upon receipt of a request
19 from the debtor to whom the debt purportedly applies, the debt
20 buyer shall make this information available, without charge, to the 21 debtor within five business days.

22 1788.54. A debt buyer who receives payment on a debt shall 23 provide an original receipt or an exact copy of the receipt to the 24 individual from whom payment is received within 10 days of 25 payment. A receipt provided in this regard shall:

26 (a) Show the amount and date paid, the name of the entity paid, 27 the current account number, the name of the original creditor, and 28 the account number issued by the original creditor. If the debt 29 buyer is in possession of the names of any prior purchasers of the 30 debt and the account numbers issued by those purchasers, this 31 information shall also be included.

32 (b) State clearly and conspicuously if the payment is accepted
33 as payment in full or as a full and final compromise of the debt.
34 If any part of the debt will be owing after the payment is made,
35 the receipt shall state clearly and conspicuously the balance due 36 after payment is credited.

37 1788.56. A debt buyer shall not bring suit, initiate another 38 proceeding, or take any other action to collect a consumer debt if 39 the applicable statute of limitations on the cause of action has 40 expired.

1 1788.58. In an action brought by a debt buyer on a consumer
2 debt:

3 (a) The plaintiff shall disclose clearly and conspicuously on the 4 face of the complaint that he or she is a debt buyer.

5 (b) All of the following shall be attached to the complaint:

6 (1) A copy of the contract or other writing evidencing the
7 original debt and agreement of the debtor to be responsible for that 8 debt, and establishing that each defendant debtor is, in fact,
9 responsible for the original account.

10 (2) A copy of the writing establishing that the debt buyer is the 11 sole current owner of the debt. If the debt has been sold more than 12 once, admissible written evidence shall be provided to establish 13 an unbroken chain of ownership interests. Each writing shall 14 contain the original account number of the debt sold or purchased,
15 which shall be redacted for security purposes to show only the last 16 four digits, and shall clearly show the debtor's correct name
17 associated with the original account number.

18 (3) A statement of calculation of liability that separately states 19 the amount of the original debt, each fee and charge added to the 20 debt, and each payment credited to the debt after the earliest of 21 charge off or the delinquency closest in time to the sale of the debt.

22 1788.60. (a) In an action initiated by a debt buyer prior to the 23 entry of a judgment, including a default judgment, against a debtor,
24 the plaintiff shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the court
25 that he or she is a debt buyer and shall provide admissible evidence 26 to establish the amount and nature of the debt and the identity of 27 the debtor, including all of the information described in subdivision 28 (b).

29 (b) For the purpose of this section, the only evidence sufficient
30 to establish the amount and nature of the debt shall be properly 31 authenticated business records that satisfy the requirements of 32 Sections 1271 and 1272 of the Evidence Code. The authenticated
33 business records shall include the following items:

34 (1) A copy of the contract or other writing evidencing the
35 original debt and agreement of the debtor to be responsible for that 36 debt.

37 (2) The original account number.

38 (3) The name of the original creditor.

39 (4) The original charge-off balance.

40 (5) An itemization of charges and fees claimed to be owed.

1 (6) An itemization of post charge-off additions, if applicable.

2 (7) The date of last payment.

3 (8) The amount of interest claimed and the basis for the interest
4 charged.

5 (c) If a plaintiff who is a debt buyer seeks a default judgment
6 and has not complied with the requirements of this section, the 7 court shall not enter a default judgment for the plaintiff and shall 8 instead dismiss the action with prejudice.

9 1788.62. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this section, a 10 debt buyer who violates any provision of this title with respect to 11 any person is liable to the person in an amount equal to the sum
12 of the following:

13 (1) Any actual damage sustained by the person.

14 (2) The amount established pursuant to either subparagraph (A)
15 or (B):

16 (A) The case of any action by an individual, such additional 17 damages as the court may allow, but not less than five hundred
18 dollars ($500) per violation and not more than five thousand dollars
19 ($5,000) per violation.

20 (B) In the case of a class action, the amount for each named 21 plaintiff as could be recovered under subparagraph (A), and an 22 amount as the court may determine for each other class member,
23 not exceeding the amount per person that could be recovered under 24 subparagraph (A).

25 (3) In the case of any successful action to enforce the foregoing
26 liability, the costs of the action, together with a reasonable
27 attorney's fee as determined by the court.

28 (b) In determining the amount of liability under paragraph (2)
29 of subdivision (a), the court shall consider, among other relevant 30 factors, the following:

31 (1) In any individual action under subparagraph (A) of paragraph 32 (2) of subdivision (a), the frequency and persistence of 33 noncompliance by the debt buyer, and the nature of the 34 noncompliance.

35 (2) In any class action under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2)
36 of subdivision (a), the frequency and persistence of noncompliance
37 by the debt buyer, the nature of the noncompliance, the resources
38 of the debt buyer, and the number of persons adversely affected.

39 (c) A debt buyer shall not be held liable in any action brought 40 under this title if the debt buyer shows by a preponderance of

1 evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from 2 a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures
3 reasonably adapted to avoid any such error.

4 (d) An action to enforce any liability created by this title may 5 be brought within two years from the date of discovery of the 6 violation occurs.

7 1788.64. Any waiver of the provisions of this title is contrary
8 to public policy, and is void and unenforceable.

9 SEC. 2. Section 581.5 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure,
10 to read:

11 581.5. In a case involving consumer debt, as defined in Section
12 1788.2 of the Civil Code, and as regulated under Title 1.6C.5
13 (commencing with Section 1788.50) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the 14 Civil Code, if the defendant debtor appears for trial on the 15 scheduled trial date, and the plaintiff debt buyer either fails to 16 appear or is not prepared to proceed to trial, and the court does not 17 find a good cause for continuance, judgment shall be entered for 18 the debtor. Notwithstanding any other law, in this instance, the 19 court may award the defendant debtor's costs of preparing for trial, 20 including, but not limited to, lost wages and transportation
21 expenses.

22 SEC. 3. Section 700.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
23 amended to read:

24 700.010. (a) At the time of levy pursuant to this article or 25 promptly thereafter, the levying officer shall serve a copy of the 26 following on the judgment debtor:

27 (1) The writ of execution.

28 (2) A notice of levy.

29 (3) If the judgment debtor is a natural person, a copy of the form
30 listing exemptions prepared by the Judicial Council pursuant to 31 subdivision (c) of Section 681.030, the list of exemption amounts
32 published pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 703.150, a copy 33 of the form that the judgment debtor may use to make a claim of 34 exemption pursuant to Section 703.520, and a copy of the form
35 the judgment debtor may use to provide a financial statement
36 pursuant to Section 703.530.

37 (4) Any affidavit of identity, as defined in Section 680.135, for 38 names of the debtor listed on the writ of execution.

39 (b) Service under this section shall be made personally or by 40 mail.

1 SEC. 4. Section 706.103 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
2 amended to read:

3 706.103. (a) The levying officer shall serve upon the 4 designated employer all of the following:

5 (1) The original and one copy of the earnings withholding order.

6 (2) The form for the employer's return.

7 (3) The notice to employee of earnings withholding order.

8 (4) A copy of the form that the judgment debtor may use to
9 make a claim of exemption.

10 (5) A copy of the form the judgment debtor may use to provide
11 a financial statement.

12 (b) At the time the levying officer makes service pursuant to 13 subdivision (a), the levying officer shall provide the employer with 14 a copy of the employer's instructions referred to in Section
15 706.127. The Judicial Council may adopt rules prescribing the 16 circumstances when compliance with this subdivision is not 17 required.

18 (c) No earnings withholding order shall be served upon the 19 employer after the time specified in subdivision (b) of Section 20 699.530.

21 SEC. 5. Section 706.104 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
22 amended to read:

23 706.104. Any employer who is served with an earnings
24 withholding order shall:

25 (a) Deliver to the judgment debtor a copy of the earnings
26 withholding order, the notice to employee of earnings withholding,
27 a copy of the form that the judgment debtor may use to make a
28 claim of exemption, and a copy of the form the judgment debtor
29 may use to provide a financial statement within 10 days from the 30 date of service. If the judgment debtor is no longer employed by 31 the employer and the employer does not owe the employee any 32 earnings, the employer is not required to make such delivery. The 33 employer is not subject to any civil liability for failure to comply
34 with this subdivision. Nothing in this subdivision limits the power 35 of a court to hold the employer in contempt of court for failure to 36 comply with this subdivision.

37 (b) Complete the employer's return on the form provided by 38 the levying officer and mail it by first-class mail, postage prepaid, 39 to the levying officer within 15 days from the date of service. If 40 the earnings withholding order is ineffective, the employer shall

1 state in the employer's return that the order will not be complied
2 with for this reason and shall return the order to the levying officer
3 with the employer's return.

4 SEC. 6. Section 706.108 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
5 amended to read:

6 706.108. (a) If a writ of execution has been issued to the county
7 where the judgment debtor's employer is to be served and the time
8 specified in subdivision (b) of Section 699.530 for levy on property
9 under the writ has not expired, a judgment creditor may deliver
10 an application for issuance of an earnings withholding order to a
11 registered process server who may then issue an earnings
12 withholding order.

13 (b) If the registered process server has issued the earnings
14 withholding order, the registered process server, before serving
15 the earnings withholding order, shall deposit with the levying
16 officer a copy of the writ of execution, the application for issuance
17 of an earnings withholding order, and a copy of the earnings
18 withholding order, and shall pay the fee provided by Section 26750
19 of the Government Code.

20 (c) A registered process server may serve an earnings
21 withholding order on an employer whether the earnings
22 withholding order was issued by a levying officer or by a registered 23 process server, but no earnings withholding order may be served 24 after the time specified in subdivision (b) of Section 699.530. In 25 performing this function, the registered process server shall serve 26 upon the designated employer all of the following:

27 (1) The original and one copy of the earnings withholding order.

28 (2) The form for the employer's return.

29 (3) The notice to the employee of the earnings withholding
30 order.

31 (4) A copy of the form that the judgment debtor may use to
32 make a claim of exemption.

33 (5) A copy of the form the judgment debtor may use to provide
34 a financial statement.

35 (6) A copy of the employer's instructions referred to in Section 36 706.127, except as otherwise prescribed in rules adopted by the 37 Judicial Council.

38 (d) Within five court days after service under this section, all 39 of the following shall be filed with the levying officer:

1 (1) The writ of execution, if it is not already in the hands of the 2 levying officer.

3 (2) Proof of service on the employer of the papers listed in 4 subdivision (c).

5 (3) Instructions in writing, as required by the provisions of 6 Section 687.010.

7 (e) If the fee provided by Section 26750 of the Government
8 Code has been paid, the levying officer shall perform all other
9 duties required by this chapter as if the levying officer had served
10 the earnings withholding order. If the registered process server
11 does not comply with subdivisions (b), where applicable, and (d), 12 the service of the earnings withholding order is ineffective and the 13 levying officer is not required to perform any duties under the 14 order and may terminate the order and may release any withheld
15 earnings to the judgment debtor.

16 (f) The fee for services of a registered process server under this 17 section shall be allowed as a recoverable cost pursuant to Section 18 1033.5.

19 SEC. 7. Section 706.122 of the Code of Civil Procedure is 20 amended to read:

21 706.122. The “notice to employee of earnings withholding 22 order” shall contain a statement that informs the employee in 23 simple terms of the nature of a wage garnishment, the right to an 24 exemption, the procedure for claiming an exemption, and any other 25 information the Judicial Council determines would be useful to 26 the employee and appropriate for inclusion in the notice, including 27 all of the following:

28 (a) The named employer has been ordered to withhold from the 29 earnings of the judgment debtor the amounts required to be 30 withheld under Section 706.050, or such other amounts as are 31 specified in the earnings withholding order, and to pay these 32 amounts over to the levying officer for transmittal to the person 33 specified in the order in payment of the judgment described in the 34 order.

35 (b) The manner of computing the amounts required to be 36 withheld pursuant to Section 706.050.

37 (c) The judgment debtor may be able to keep more or all of the 38 judgment debtor’s earnings if the judgment debtor proves that the 39 additional earnings are necessary for the support of the judgment

1 debtor or the judgment debtor's family supported in whole or in
2 part by the judgment debtor.

3 (d) If the judgment debtor wishes a court hearing to prove that
4 amounts should not be withheld from the judgment debtor's
5 earnings because they are necessary for the support of the judgment
6 debtor or the judgment debtor's family supported in whole or in 7 part by the judgment debtor, the judgment debtor shall file with 8 the levying officer an original and one copy of the "judgment 9 debtor's claim of exemption" and an original and one copy of the 10 "judgment debtor's financial statement."

11 SEC. 8. The provisions of this act are severable. If any 12 provision of this section or its application is held invalid, that 13 invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can 14 be given effect without the invalid provision or application.
